Presentation of Shikar-Safari Club International Wildlife Officer of Year Award for Wisconsin.

FOR: May 2015 Board meeting

PRESENTER'S NAME AND TITLE: Todd Schaller - Chief Warden and Janis Bohner Shikar-Safari Club International Representative

INFORMATION ITEM:

Annual presentation of the Shika-Safari Club Internation Award which has traditionally occurred at NRB Award based on the partnership with this National organization

SUMMARY:

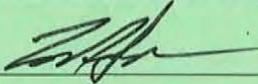

Presentation of the award to Supervisor Joe Jerich who was selected as the Wisconsin Shikar-Safari Club International Wildlife Officer award winner. The selection was based on the following;

Warden Supervisor Jerich is a veteran leader in the agency and has developed and honed his considerable skills with a proven history of successfully developing staff in an area known for high turn-over.

Excels in service excellence by going above/beyond to address customer questions or concerns and availability to staff and co-workers

Stepped up to be involved with and lead a newly formed Mission Ready Team (Remote Operated Vehicle (water)) providing a service to the agency and external partners. Duties included selection of a statewide team, equipment purchases, training and staffing deployment assignments.

A gifted communicator who uses a variety of communication style with staff to provide guidance and promote consistency
