

Since the introduction of Turkey's the population continues to grow. When we first had a season the permits were few and in mostly southern counties.

At that time legal hours were only till 12:00 Noon.

As we gained experience this was changed to evening hours.

There was some discussion about adding another week.

Instead I propose that each time period be Mon To Sunday instead. This would make it easier if weather was bad, or any other problem,

Notes

Ben Breitenbach