SUBJECT: Adoption of Board Order WM-06-08, modifications to chs. NR 1, 8, 10, 12, 15, 16, 17, and 19, the 2008 Wildlife Management housekeeping rule package

Recommendation:

The department recommends adoption of WM-06-08, a housekeeping rule package pertaining to chapters NR 1, 8, 10, 12, 15, 16, 17, and 19 Wis. Adm. Code.

Rule Summary:

Annually the department updates administrative code language to correct inconsistencies, update outdated language and provide clarification where appropriate. This year, the department is proposing the following changes related to hunting, trapping, dog training, nuisance animal removal, wildlife rehabilitation, and license issuance:

- Designate elk as big game animals.
- Allow the department to issue all approvals, permits, license subscriptions and passes through the automated licensing system.
- Update the names of existing disabled-only zones for wild turkey hunters.
- Update and eliminate duplicative or unnecessary deer hunting season language.
- Correct a drafting error related to the youth deer hunting season.
- Return to the practice of allowing hunting at night of species for which there are no hunting hours restrictions during all firearm deer seasons except the traditional nine-day firearm deer season.
- Correct a cross reference related to types of legal archery hunting equipment.
- Adjust bear management zones A and D to account for the Bad River Reservation.
- Update wildlife damage and nuisance control rules to be consistent with recently passed legislation.
- Update rules which establish the Horicon Marsh Fur Farm to include newly acquired lands which are part of the marsh.
- Re-establish pheasant management zones in the captive wildlife chapter so that provisions which were inadvertently removed by previous rulemaking are restored.
- Eliminate the sunset of a rule which allows training dogs with the aid of raccoon and rabbits at certain times.
- Establish a definition of "preserve" in order to eliminate confusion about when a Taxidermy or Fur Buyers license is required.
- Waive department fur tagging requirements for tribes that have their own fur tagging systems.
- Repeal the "initial" advanced license for wildlife rehabilitation.
- Clarify that animals which are being rehabilitated may not be exposed to other species, including domestic, during rehabilitation.
- Correct a typographical error related to wildlife rehabilitation regulations.

Background:Designate elk as big game animals

Chapter NR 1 contains Natural Resources Board policy statements on deer and bear but not elk. The proposed statement is similar to the existing language which designates black bear as a big game animal.

Allow the department to issue all approvals, permits, license subscriptions and passes through the automated licensing system

Current rule authority allows only the sales of hunting, fishing and trapping related authorizations with the automated license system at department outlets and through private vendors. This proposal would establish the ability for vendors to issue any type of department license, permit, publication or other services in order to expand customer service. No specific expansion of services is proposed at this time but establishing the authority to do so may generate interest from other department programs.

Update the names of existing disabled-only zones for wild turkey hunters

These zones need new names because of the creation of a new seven zone turkey map.

Eliminate duplicative deer hunting season language

Special firearm deer hunting season language currently exists in three places in administrative code. That language is duplicative and no longer necessary with the sunset of the two-year experiment with seasons that do not include October antlerless only deer hunts. Additionally, these provisions clarify that only antlerless deer may be harvested by archers during the October antlerless only firearm season.

Correct a drafting error related to the youth deer hunting season

This provision corrects a drafting error by removing the word "federal".

Return to the practice of allowing hunting at night of species for which there are no hunting hours restrictions during all deer seasons except the traditional nine-day firearm deer season

In the past hunting at night for species such as raccoon and coyote has been allowed during October and December firearm deer seasons but not the traditional nine-day November firearm season. This provision updates a cross reference so that this policy can continue.

Correct a cross reference related to types of legal archery hunting equipment

This provision updates a cross reference.

Adjust bear management zones A and D so that the Bad River Reservation will be entirely in Zone D

This proposed change places the Bad River Reservation in one zone so that it is not split between bear management zones D and A. Since very little non-tribal hunting occurs in this area the proposed change will not significantly affect the public.

Update wildlife damage and nuisance control rules to be consistent with recently passed legislation

This change is a response to the passage of 2005 ACT 82 and the proposed rule language is identical to that found in the new statute. Prior to ACT 82, public access for hunting certain species on lands where shooting permits have been issued or wildlife damage claims assistance is disbursed was required. That is no longer true on lands where a deer shooting permit is the only form of abatement and eligibility for wildlife damage claims is waived.

Update rules which establish the Horicon Marsh Fur Farm to include newly acquired lands which are part of the marsh

The property boundary of the Horicon Marsh Wildlife Area has expanded due to land acquisitions by the department but this expansion is not reflected on the map which establishes the Horicon Marsh Fur Farm. This proposal would eliminate the map and establish that the Horicon Marsh Wildlife Area “as posted with department signs” is the Horicon Marsh Fur Farm so that the map in Administrative Code does not have to be continually updated.

Re-establish pheasant management zones in the captive wildlife chapter so that provisions which were inadvertently removed by previous rulemaking are restored

The pheasant management zone map was eliminated in 2006 so that the Pheasant Stamp would be required of pheasant hunters statewide. This change had unintended effects on shooting preserve regulations. This change would restore the ability of Class B Shooting Preserves to stock and harvest hen pheasants if they are outside the boundary of the Pheasant Management Zone by restoring that zone map for the purposes of shooting preserve regulations only.

Eliminate the sunset of a rule which allows training dogs with the aid of raccoon and rabbits at certain times in the Northern Closed Area

The Natural Resources Board approved this change in October 2006 as part of a rule package that established hound dog training enclosure regulations. Because of a drafting error the change was not actually made in Administrative Code.

Establish a definition of “preserve” in order to eliminate confusion about when a Taxidermy or Fur Buyers license is required

This proposal would clarify that a taxidermy license is not necessary if a person is only tanning the hides of furbearing animals.

Waive department fur tagging requirements for tribes that have their own fur tagging systems

Trapping and hunting seasons on tribal lands are not consistent with state seasons and current rule requires that animals taken on tribal lands and transported out must be tagged if the state season is not open. This provision would allow an exemption to that rule if a Wisconsin tribe has a wildlife tagging system that is similar to the department’s current system. Several tribes currently have such a system.

Repeal the “initial” advanced license for wildlife rehabilitation

The “initial” advanced wildlife rehabilitation license was intended for use during the implementation phase of newly enacted captive wildlife statutes and rules. Now that these programs are well established, this type of license can be repealed.

Clarify that animals which are being rehabilitated may not be exposed to other species, including domestic, during rehabilitation

Wild animals which are being rehabilitated may not be visually exposed to other species of animals. This proposal adds clarity by emphasizing that “other species” includes domestic animals.

Correct a typographical error related to wildlife rehabilitation regulations

In this section, “license” should be “licensee”.

Recommended Public Participation

A hearing was held in Madison on April 25. No one appeared in favor or opposition of the rule. One written comment, a general statement of support for the rule, was received.

Rule Development:

These rules were developed with assistance from the bureaus of Law Enforcement, Legal Services, Customer Service & Licensing, Facilities and Lands, Endangered Resources and Parks & Recreation.

Small Business and Initial Regulatory Flexibility Analysis:

The revisions to chs. NR 1, 8, 10, 12, 15, 16, 17, and 19, Wis. Adm. Code, pertain to hunting and nuisance wild animal removal. These rules are applicable to individual sportspersons and impose no compliance or reporting requirements for small businesses, nor are any design or operational standards contained in the rule. Therefore, under s. 227.19 (3m), Stats., a final regulatory flexibility analysis is not required.

Environmental Analysis:

Bureau of Integrated Science Services has determined that these rule revisions are a Type III action under Chapter 150, Wis. Adm. Code, and no environmental analysis is required.

Legislative Council Rules and Clearinghouse Report:

Comments from the Legislative Council Clearinghouse related primarily to form, style, and placement in the Administrative Code and have been incorporated in this rule order.

Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

The intent of these rule changes is to correct drafting errors, provide clarification to existing rules, simplify regulations, increase access to department services, and update administrative code language and references. The department anticipates only minimal fiscal impacts. Specifically, these rules will:

- Designate elk as big game animals.
- Allow issuance of all approvals, permits, license subscriptions and passes through the automated licensing system.
- Eliminate duplicative deer hunting season language.
- Correct a drafting error related to the youth deer hunting season.
- Return to the practice policy of allowing hunting at night of species for which there are no hunting hours restrictions during all firearm deer seasons except the traditional nine-day firearm deer season.
- Correct a cross reference related to types of legal archery hunting equipment.
- Adjust bear management zones A and D to account for the Bad River Reservation.
- Update wildlife damage and nuisance control rules to be consistent with recently passed legislation.
- Update rules which establish the Horicon Marsh Fur Farm to include newly acquired lands which are part of the marsh.
- Re-establish pheasant management zones in the captive wildlife chapter so that provisions which were inadvertently removed by previous rulemaking are restored.
- Eliminate the sunset of a rule which allows training dogs with the aid of raccoon and rabbits at certain times.
- Establish a definition of "preserve" in order to eliminate confusion about when a Taxidermy or Fur Buyers license is required.
- Waive department fur tagging requirements for tribes that have their own fur tagging systems.
- Repeal the "initial" advanced license for wildlife rehabilitation.
- Clarify that animals which are being rehabilitated may not be exposed to other species, including domestic, during rehabilitation.
- Correct a typographical error related to wildlife rehabilitation regulations.

Long-Range Fiscal Implications

Adding new purchase options to the automated licensing system may result in an increase in permits and services which are sold and an increase in revenue to the department. However, since no specific services are proposed to be included at this time it is not feasible to predict long range implications.

Allowing the issuance of permits, licenses, and services in addition to the ones currently allowed under ss. Ch. 29 Stats., would increase costs because programming updates to the automated licensing system would be needed. No specific program updates are proposed at this time, however. If new items are added to the automated licensing system it would be the responsibility of that program to provide resources to Customer Service & Licensing, the bureau which administers the licensing system. Those costs may be offset by increased sales resulting from easier access to services at license outlets statewide.

It is not anticipated that any other provisions of the rule will have fiscal impacts.

Comments

[NOTE: All citations to “Manual” in the comments below are to the Administrative Rules Procedures Manual, prepared by the Revisor of Statutes Bureau and the Legislative Council Staff, dated January 2005.]

2. Form, Style and Placement in Administrative Code

a. In the treatment clause for SECTION 4, the word “through” should be replaced by the word “to.”

b. It is recommended that s. NR 8.02 be further modified to simply require “all license agents to issue all department approvals or federal approvals designated by the department to be issued through the automated licensing system, except for approvals designated by the department to be issued only by the department or by specified license agents” if this is the department’s intent.

c. In s. NR 8.06 (1) (intro.), after the word “another,” the underscored material should follow the stricken material. Also, in sub. (1) (a), the last sentence should read: “A parent or guardian shall sign a purchase receipt under s. NR 8.04 (1) (a) on behalf of the child before the parent or guardian receives the approval.”

d. It is recommended that s. NR 8.06 (3) be modified to only apply to a person purchasing an approval for another person “as provided in this section.”

e. In s. NR 12.36 (1), if the only exception the department intends to make to the open access requirements for enrollees issued a shooting permit under s. 29.885, Stats., is the exception that is created in (1m), then (1) should remain mandatory “except as provided in (1m)” so that enrollees issued a shooting permit and receiving other abatement measures or payments do not have an argument that they should not be required to have open access.

- f. In s. NR 12.36 (1m) 1., “, and” should be replaced by a period.
- g. In s. NR 19.12 (1) (d), the title should be shown in italics.
- h. It appears that the effective date clause of the rule should read: “This rule shall take effect on the first day of the month following publication in the Wisconsin Administrative Register as provided in s. 227.22 (2) (intro.), Stats.” [See s. 1.02 (4), Manual.]

4. Adequacy of References to Related Statutes, Rules and Forms

- a. Section 29.506, Stats., should be added to the lists of statutory authority and statutes interpreted (see s. NR 19.001 (13m)).
- b. In the statements of statutory authority and statutes interpreted, it appears that the reference to s. 169.20 (6), Stats., is incorrect.

5. Clarity, Grammar, Punctuation and Use of Plain Language

- a. Do “license issuance manual” (s. NR 8.05) and “license issuance handbook” (s. NR 8.04 and elsewhere) refer to the same document? If so, the same term should be used for each reference.
- b. It is not clear from the map created under s. NR 16.19 (8) what areas are included in pheasant management zones.

ORDER OF THE STATE OF WISCONSIN NATURAL RESOURCES BOARD
REPEALING, AMENDING, REPEALING AND RECREATING, AND CREATING RULES

The Wisconsin Natural Resources Board proposes an order to repeal NR 10.01(3)(ed)5., 10.01(3)(ez) and 19.73(3)(e); to amend NR 1.15(intro.) and (2)(d), 8.01(title) and (1), 8.02, 8.03(2)(c), 8.04(1), 8.05(1) and 8.06, 10.01(2)(f) 2. and 3, 10.01(3)(e)1.e., 10.01(3)(em)1., 10.01(3)(ev), 10.06(8)(b), 10.09(3), 12.36(1), 17.04(3)(a)(intro.), 17.08(3)(a)(intro.), 19.73(3)(a)(intro.), 19.77(2)(f) and 19.78(2); to repeal and recreate NR 10.30 and 15.11(1); and to create NR 1.15(2)(e), 16.19(8), 19.001(13m), 19.12(1)(d), relating to hunting, trapping, captive wild animals, dog training, nuisance animal removal, wildlife rehabilitation and license issuance.

Analysis Prepared by the Department of Natural Resources

Statutory Authority and Explanation of Agency Authority: Statutes that authorize the promulgation of this rule order include ss. 23.16, 23.322, 23.325(2), 23.33, 27.01 (7), 29.014, 29.506, 29.889(7m), 30.52, 169.19(6), 169.21(3), 169.24, and 227.11, Stats. These sections grant rule making authority to the department to establish and maintain open and closed seasons for hunting, to establish other regulations for hunting, trapping, dog training, nuisance wild animal removal, and wildlife rehabilitation. These sections also establish that the department may charge fees for various department permits and products. All rules promulgated under this authority are subject to review under ch. 227, Stats.

Statutes Interpreted and Explanation: In promulgating this rule, ss. 23.16, 23.322, 23.325(2), 23.33, 27.01 (7), 29.014, 29.506, 29.889(7m), 30.52, 169.19(6), 169.21(3), 169.24 and 227.11, Stats., have been interpreted as providing the department with the authority to make these housekeeping clarifications.

Related Statute or Rule: There are no state rules or statutes currently under promulgation that directly relate to the provisions that are proposed in this administrative order.

Plain Language Rule Analysis: The Bureau of Wildlife Management recommends promulgating administrative rules that modify sections of chs. NR 1, 8, 10, 12, 15, 16, 17 and 19. These rule changes related to hunting, trapping, captive wild animals, dog training, nuisance animal removal and license issuance are minor and unlikely to be controversial. The intent of these rule changes is to correct drafting errors, provide clarification to existing rules, simplify regulations, and update administrative code language and references. Policy issues affected by this rule are ones which have already been addressed by previous rulemaking. Specifically, these rules will:

- Designate elk as big game animals.
- Allow the department to issue all approvals, permits, license subscriptions and passes through the automated licensing system.
- Update the names of existing disabled-only zones for wild turkey hunters.
- Update and eliminate duplicative or unnecessary deer hunting season language.
- Correct a drafting error related to the youth deer hunting season.
- Return to the policy of allowing hunting at night of species for which there are no hunting hours restrictions during all firearm deer seasons except the traditional nine-day firearm deer season.
- Correct a cross reference related to types of legal archery hunting equipment.
- Adjust bear management zones A and D to account for the Bad River Reservation.
- Update wildlife damage and nuisance control rules to be consistent with recently passed legislation.
- Update rules which establish the Horicon Marsh Fur Farm to include newly acquired lands which are part of the marsh.

- Re-establish pheasant management zones in the captive wildlife chapter so that provisions which were inadvertently removed by previous rulemaking are restored.
- Eliminate the sunset of a rule which allows training dogs with the aid of raccoon and rabbits at certain times.
- Establish a definition of “preserve” in order to eliminate confusion about when a Taxidermy or Fur Buyers license is required.
- Waive department fur tagging requirements for tribes that have their own fur tagging systems.
- Repeal the “initial” advanced license for wildlife rehabilitation.
- Clarify that animals which are being rehabilitated may not be exposed to other species, including domestic, during rehabilitation.
- Correct a typographical error related to wildlife rehabilitation regulations.

Federal Regulatory Analysis: These state rules and statutes do not relieve individuals from the restrictions, requirements and conditions of federal statutes and regulations. Regulating the hunting and trapping of native species has been delegated to state fish and wildlife agencies. Additionally, none of the proposed rules exceed the authorities granted to states in 50 CFR 10.

Comparison with rules in Adjacent States: These rule change proposals do not represent significant policy changes and do not differ significantly from surrounding states. All surrounding states have regulations and rules in place for the management and recreational use of wild game and furbearer species that are established based on needs that are unique to that state’s resources and public desires.

Summary of Factual Data and Analytical Methodologies: This rule order is necessary to correct inconsistencies created through the promulgation of other rules and statutes, update code language, correct previous drafting errors, and to clarify existing administrative code language. The rule changes included in this order do not deviate from current department policy on the management of wildlife and the regulation of hunting and trapping.

Anticipated Private Sector Costs: These rules, and the legislation which grants the department rule making authority, do not have a significant fiscal effect on the private sector. Additionally, no significant costs are associated with compliance to these rules.

Effects on Small Business: These rules are applicable to individual sportspersons and impose no compliance or reporting requirements for small businesses, and no design or operational standards are contained in the rule.
