

Table of Contents

- ii Credits
- iii Preface
- iv Contributors
- v Foreword
- vii Executive Summary
- x List of Figures

Part I: Introduction

- 3 Chapter 1: Background
  - 3 A. Purpose of the Wisconsin Land Legacy Report
  - 3 B. What this report is and what it isn't
  - 4 C. How to use this report
  - 5 D. Approaches to designing protection strategies
  - 6 E. History of the Wisconsin Land Legacy Report
- 7 Chapter 2: The State of Wisconsin's Resources
  - 7 A. Our past and current landscape
    - 7 Our People
    - 12 Our Land
    - 16 Our Farmland
    - 18 Our Forests
    - 20 Our Wetlands
    - 22 Our Waters
    - 25 Our Ecology
    - 27 Our Recreation Demands
  - 29 B. Native Americans in Wisconsin
  - 30 C. Protection efforts to date in Wisconsin

Part II: Legacy Places

- 37 Chapter 3: The Identification and Representation Process
  - 37 A. How the Legacy Places were identified
  - 38 B. How the Legacy Places are organized
  - 40 C. How the information is presented
  - 42 D. How the values were determined
  - 44 E. How specific recreation activities are addressed
- 45 Chapter 4: Legacy Places by Ecological Landscape
  - 46 Index of Legacy Places by County
  - 48 State Map of Legacy Places and Ecological Landscapes
  - 49 State Map of Legacy Places and Public Conservation Lands, Reservation Lands, and Ceded Territory Boundary
  - 50 Alphabetical Index of Legacy Places
    - Legacy Places by Ecological Landscape
      - 57 Superior Coastal Plains
      - 66 Northwest Lowlands
      - 71 Northwest Sands
      - 78 North Central Forest
      - 92 Northern Highlands
      - 99 Forest Transition
      - 111 Northeast Sands
      - 118 Northern Lake Michigan Coastal
      - 128 Central Lake Michigan Coastal
      - 137 Western Prairie
      - 142 Western Coulee and Ridges
      - 159 Southwest Savanna
      - 165 Central Sand Plains
      - 174 Central Sand Hills
      - 182 Southeast Glacial Plains
      - 201 Southern Lake Michigan Coastal

- 209 Chapter 5: Statewide Needs and Resources
  - 210 A. Groundwater recharge areas and places impacting public water supplies
  - 211 B. Lakes and undeveloped shoreline
  - 213 C. Large working forests
  - 215 D. Prairies and savannas
  - 217 E. Recreation areas
  - 219 F. Scattered natural areas
  - 220 G. Trails
  - 223 H. Wetlands

Part III: Where to from here?

- 226 Chapter 6: Implementation
  - 227 A. What lies ahead
  - 229 B. Perspectives on how much public conservation land is enough
  - 230 C. Remaining issues and needs
  - 231 D. Errors, omissions, and updates
- 232 Closing Remarks
- 233 Appendices
  - A1 A. Glossary
  - B1 B. Natural Community Descriptions
  - C1 C. Criteria used to identify Legacy Places
  - D1 D. Past Reports, Inventories, and Plans