

Black Walnut Resource Report Form

WI DNR, Forest Health Protection, September 2012

Landowner or Land Manager Contact Information

Name: _____ Email: _____
Address: _____ Telephone: _____
_____ Zip _____

Walnut Resource Information

Location of walnut: _____ Date of visit to the site: _____
GPS Coordinates: Latitude N_ . _____ Longitude W - _ . _____
County _____ Township _____ Section ____ Range ____
Additional location information: _____

Description of walnut resource (circle response):

Plantation Natural Stand Urban & Community Forest Roadway Riparian Area

Stand size: Single tree Landscape cluster Forested Area > 2 acres Plantation = _____ acres

Juglans species present (circle all that apply): Black Walnut Butternut

Basal area of Juglans (if applicable): _____

Walnut size class(s): _____ Sapling – less than 5 inches in diameter
_____ Pole – 5 inches to 11 inches in diameter
_____ Sawtimber – greater than 11 inches in diameter

Does walnut appear to have a full, healthy crown? Yes No If no, which of the following symptoms are evident?
Yellow foliage/ flagging Brown or wilted leaves Small leaves Dying/dead branches Crown thinning

Is there evidence of Thousand Cankers Disease? No Maybe Yes If so, please describe below.

Numerous cankers located under the bark Reddish brown bark beetles (1/16 inch long)
Galleries under the bark Pin-sized holes on branches

Is this tree/ are the trees likely to be removed soon? _____ If so, when? _____

Other comments or information you may have:

PLEASE RETURN DATASHEET BY MAIL, EMAIL OR FAX TO:

Renee Pinski, Forest Health Protection- WI DNR, 3911 Fish Hatchery Rd., Fitchburg, WI 53711
E-mail: renee.pinski@wisconsin.gov, Telephone: (608) 275-3231, Facsimile: (608) 275-3236