

Announcing the Wisconsin Small-Scale Biofuels Producer Program

The Wisconsin Small-Scale Biofuels Producers Program benefits ethanol and biodiesel producers by providing technical and regulatory assistance, networking opportunities, grant assistance and more in exchange for basic annual production information. There is no fee to become a member.

Register at www.TheRenewableNetwork.com. Click on the Biofuels genre.

- Technical assistance
- Grants
- Workshops
- Networking
- Safety information
- Analytical services
- Testing supplies
- Regulatory assistance
- Production equipment

The Small-Scale Biofuels Producer Program is working in coordination with Wisconsin businesses and organizations to promote safe production of high quality ethanol and biodiesel across Wisconsin including.

- Wisconsin Biodiesel Association
- Paradigm Sensors
- Wisconsin Technical Colleges
- UW-Colleges
- Wisconsin Farmer's Union
- Wisconsin Clean Cities – Southeast Area
- Farm and Biofuels Cooperatives
- Wisconsin Soybean Association
- Wisconsin Corn Grower's Association
- International Institute for Ecological Agriculture
- Midwest Regional Energy Association
- Fuel Distributors
- OEM Equipment Distributors
- American Lung Association of Wisconsin

For more information Contact
Program Coordinator: Bob Brylski
Ph: 920-289-0166
Email: Biofuel@TheRenewableNetwork.com

